

BUY RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

We will spend most of our time trying to think what to give for Christmas, and spend most of our money for things nobody wants, and then forget to put on the packages those little Red Cross Christmas seals that would probably do more real good than the gift itself.

Have you put a Christmas Seal for the aid of tubercular children on your Christmas packages? Are you ashamed that others have to call your attention to this neglect? Buy now before the Christmas season is over.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE

Paris People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease

The symptoms of kidney trouble are many. Disordered kidneys often excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back may ache, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighted down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better endorsed kidney remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Paris proof of their merit.

Joe Kiely, proprietor shoe repair shop, Eighth street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a world of good and I take pleasure in recommending them to anyone suffering with kidney trouble. I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and my back ached most of the time. My kidneys were weak and the secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. I lost my sleep at night as there was no let up to the pain in my back. I got four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills at Ardery's Drug Store and used them. They rid me of the trouble entirely."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kiely had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

HAVENS

—Thomas Jefferson Havens, aged sixty-three, a native of Fleming county, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, Tuesday night, following a protracted illness resulting from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Havens had been engaged for many years in farming near Grange City, in Fleming county, and was prominent in agricultural circles of that county.

He is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. H. B. Anderson, of Shawhan; one son, Walter L. Havens, of Holloway, Cal.; one brother, S. L. Havens, of Tipton, Indiana; two sisters, Mrs. J. Q. Denton, of Gremola, Kans.; and Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Hillsboro, Ky.

The body was prepared for burial and taken to his old home in Fleming county, where the funeral and interment took place yesterday.

TOADVINE

—James Toadvine, aged fifty-seven, died at his home in Millersburg, Tuesday morning, following an illness of about six months from a complication of diseases. For many years he was a prominent farmer of the county, and about two years ago with his family moved to Millersburg to reside.

Mr. Toadvine is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Wm. Hill, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Alfred Pence, of Toledo, O.; and Mrs. Keller Bow, of Millersburg; three sons, Jos. Toadvine, of Toledo, O.; Hiram, Thomas and William Toadvine, of Millersburg.

The funeral was held at his late residence in Millersburg, Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. J. D. Redd, of Harrodsburg, former pastor of the Millersburg Methodist church, assisted by Dr. C. C. Fisher, of the Millersburg College, and Rev. Price T. Smith. The interment followed on the family lot in Battle Grove Cemetery, in Cynthiana. The pall-bearers were W. D. McIntyre, A. C. Moffett, John Leer, J. F. McDaniell, D. E. Clark and Dr. W. G. Dailey.

GROSCHKE

—The body of Mr. Chris Groschke, formerly of Paris, who died in the Montgomery, Alabama, Hospital, at an early hour Monday morning, was brought here for burial, arriving over the Louisville & Nashville, Tuesday night, accompanied by his widow, his son, Jos. J. Groschke, and his step-daughter, Mrs. Foley, of Montgomery.

The funeral was held at the Church of the Annunciation, in this city at 9:30 o'clock, Wednesday morning, with services conducted by Rev. Father William O'Hare. The interment followed on the family lot in the Paris Catholic Cemetery. The pall-bearers were M. J. Lavin, John McCarthy, M. J. Murphy, B. J. Santen, E. H. Gorey and James B. Dempsey.

Mr. Groschke is survived by his six sons, Jos. J. Groschke, of Louisville; Frank Groschke, of Hamburg Place, Lexington; William Groschke and Henry J. Groschke, of Paris; Louis Groschke, of Winchester, and Leo Groschke, of Akron, Ohio. These estimable young men have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in Paris and elsewhere who knew and esteemed their father very highly.

TALBOTT

—Following an illness of several months, Stanley Talbott, aged fifty-three, a former resident of Bourbon county, died at the home of his brothers, J. C. and C. M. Talbott, near Paris.

Mr. Talbott was born and reared in this county, and was a son of the late James and Elizabeth Talbott, pioneer citizens of the county. For a number of years he was book-keeper at the Cynthiana National Bank. He was active in the affairs of the Cynthiana Christian church, and a member of the Masonic, K. of P., Elks Lodges, and the Eastern Star Chapter.

He is survived by four brothers, W. W. Talbott, of Atlanta, Ga.; J. C. and C. M. Talbott, of near Paris; Arthur Talbott, of Cynthiana; five sisters, Mrs. R. G. Osborne, of Mason county; Mrs. W. A. Durham, Mrs. Anna B. McKee, Mrs. W. T. McKee, of Cynthiana, and Mrs. Jimmie Madison, of Frankfort.

The funeral was held at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Sue A. Talbott, in Cynthiana, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted by Revs. Clyde Darsie and J. E. Moss. The interment took place in Battle Grove Cemetery, in Cynthiana. The pall-bearers were W. W. Talbott, J. C. Talbott, C. M. Talbott, Arthur Talbott, Rodney S. Withers, Dr. J. M. Rees, John T. McKee, Jos. Kimbrough, Talbott Madison. The honorary escort included members of the Masonic, B. P. O. E. and K. of P. lodges of Cynthiana.

WIDE VARIETY TO SELECT CHRISTMAS GIFTS FROM

With only a few days left before Christmas, the subject of appropriate Christmas gifts in naturally uppermost in the minds of near every Paris citizen. Already the tide of Christmas shopping is heavy, and tomorrow, Saturday, being always a good day for the country people, Paris merchants are anticipating a heavy trade.

The stores and store windows, which since Thanksgiving, have worn festive clothes, are now displaying a most striking variety of holiday wares. From a tour of the stores it would seem there is not an article useful or ornamental, from automobiles and fur coats, to the merest trifles displayed on the counters of the department stores, but have their separate claims to being the ideal Christmas present.

The problem of gift selections will be one of too much variety in the choice of gifts, limited only by the size of one's purse, the generosity of the giver, and his or her relation to the recipient. And don't forget that the live merchants are those who advertise in THE NEWS what they have for the Christmas trade.

result of illness caused from a fall he received many months ago.

Mr. Cottingham was a native of Indiana, being born and raised on a farm near Milan, Indiana. He came to Paris about thirty years ago, and was engaged in various business enterprises, for several years being in the revenue service, later being manager of the Paris Distilling Company's plant and warehouses in Paris. After leaving the service Mr. Cottingham was engaged in the meat and grocery business on South Main street, until forced to retire by continued ill-health. He was a man of high character, and esteemed by all who knew him. He took a prominent part in the counsels of the local Republican party, and was a member of several secret and fraternal orders of Paris.

Mr. Cottingham is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mattie H. Cottingham, of Paris; one son, Wayne T. Cottingham, formerly of the Lexington Leader, and at present in charge of the Jefferson City, Mo., office of the Associated Press; one daughter, Mrs. Richard T. Anderson, of Lexington; one sister, Mrs. George Leggett, of Winchester, Indiana; one brother, Charles Cottingham, of Cincinnati, O.

The funeral will be held at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, assisted by Rev. J. Taylor Sharrard, of Paris. The burial will take place on the family lot, where the commitment services will be in charge of Bourbon Lodge, No. 26, I. O. O. F., of which he had been a member many years. The pall-bearers will be James D. McClintock, Thos. M. Funk, E. B. January, Jas. M. Russell, James Templin, Wallace W. Mitchell.
